Approval of Minutes

Approved

Members Joanne, Mat, Megan, Pam, Brian, Norine, Stephanie, Roseann, Yvette, Maryann, Kelly, Andrea, Jaime

Treasurer Report

- New hires, resignations, gifts

Business Agent

- No grievances

Old Business

- AHS- N/A
- Middle-
- Mead- Coding is to get free training only; not to replace staff.
- Prendergast- teachers do not need to email administrators if they are absent (just Kelly & Infinite Visions) unless Covid related.
- General- still need to hire substitutes. Busing is still an issue. This week was a bit better; keep in mind we still have the hired late bus duty person.

New Business

- High School- N/A
  - Middle School- N/A
  - Prendergast- buses are still a big problem at elementary schools, but the hired employees are taking over.
  - Mead- Welcome S. Parker new to our executive board.
  - Copy machines being problematic; parts on back order.
  - General – Griffen extended their Covid testing hours
  - Your 80 hours of Covid time start this year. We do need a plan if we CAN'T cover classes however Governor does NOT want schools going remote.
  - Staff can get covid tests from their administrators; you only need to complete form if you are tested positive.
  - Mat & Meg spoke with superintendent: why closed vs. Remote? Governor won't allow schools to go remote; yet getting the message that teachers want to be in school IF provided safety protocols (masks, cleaners, etc)
- Meeting was adjourned 4:50pm
